FRANKFORT, NOVEMBER 1, 1884.

First Presbyterian Church, Rev. J. McClusky Blainey, D. D., pastor. Services Sunday, 11 a. m. and 7:30 p. m.

No nomination having been made for member of the Board of Equalization of Taxes for this district, which office is to be filled at the election next Tuesday, the Democratic County Committee of this county met on Wednesday and recommended Mr. Richard Tobin, of this county, for the position.

A young man from Mercer county was arrested in this city Wednesday morning, having in his possession a gold-headed cane bearing the inscription: "Rev. R. Hiner, from his friend H. Berry." He claimed to have bought it from a man in Nelson county. Dr. Hiner was telephoned to at Shelbyville and replied that he lost the cane out of his buggy some time ago and it was found by a man who refused to give it up; to hold the cane and let the man go, which was accordingly done.

The Masonic Fraternity in this city are raising a fund for the purpose of erecting a handsome monument over the grave of the late Col. A. G. Hodges, who, for over fifty years, was a member of Hiram Lodge, No. 4, and for more than forty years one of the leading Masons of the State. The Grand Chapter, while in session at Louisville last week, appropriated $100 to the fund, a like sum had already been given by the several organizations of the order in this city, and it is proposed to still further augment it by individual contributions. It is proposed to have the work executed this winter, get the monument up, and unveil it during the session of the Grand Commandery in this city next May.

Sallie Lyons, the girl who was arrested for setting fire to the residence of Mr. John Jenkins, in Bridgeport, several weeks ago, was acquitted in the Circuit Court Saturday. While in custody here she said that a man by the name of Jack Short, living near Salvisa, required her to steal and bring money to him, and if she failed to do so beat and cruelly used her. If reports are true he certainly has great influence over her, for it is said she married a man by the name of Handy, in the Farmdale neighborhood some three months since, and this fellow Short came along in an hour or so after and took her away from him. Short is said to be a married man with a wife and several children living.

Guthrie-Roberts.

Notwithstanding the inclement weather on Wednesday evening, the First Presbyterian Church was filled to overflowing with a large company of ladies and gentlemen to witness the marriage of Mr. Henry A. Guthrie, of Lexington, and Miss Pattie T. Roberts, of this city. The affair was one of the most brilliant social events that has transpired in many months. The fair young bride is one of the most popular of the many pretty girls of this city, while the fortunate young gentleman is one of the most prosperous merchants in the blue-grass Capital.

The Church was beautifully decorated with flowers, the pulpit space being filled with plants and autumn leaves tastefully arranged and lighted up with burning tapers.

A little after eight o'clock the party arrived and entered the Church, the following order being observed:

Up the left aisle—Messrs. Ike Starks, of Lexington, J. Gray McLean and Richard Luckett, ushers, followed by Miss Sallie Sneed and Mr. Henry Ware, Miss Lottie Stanton and Mr. E. W. Hines, Miss Annie Knott and Capt. John W. Milam, attendants.

Up the right aisle—Messrs. Geo. L. Payne, Thos. B. Macklin and Jas. G. Dudley, ushers, followed by Miss Sallie Osborne and Dr. R. D. Rash, Miss Emma Cosby and Mr. Chas. Moore, Miss Cordie Cannon and Mr. Stuart R. Knott, attendants, and then the bride and groom.

On reaching the altar the ushers and attendants formed a half circle, the ladies on the inside, and the bride and groom moved up to the centre, ascended the raised platform immediately in front of the pulpit, where the marriage ceremony was performed by the Rev. J. McC. Blainey, in a very solemn and impressive manner.

On leaving the Church the bridal party repaired to the residence of the bride's aunt, Mrs. Lou Cannon, and after partaking of refreshments, the happy young couple left at 10 o'clock on the C. & O. train for their future home in Lexington, followed by the best wishes of a host of friends in this city.

The bride was arrayed in a beautiful white silk, made en train, with bridal veil and natural flowers. The lady attendants were dressed in white mull, and the gentlemen wore black cloth evening dress suits.

Prof. Wayland Graham presided at the organ and performed the wedding march in his usually artistic manner.

Rev. Mr. Chisolm, of Harrodsburg, having declined to accept the call tendered him by the Southern Presbyterian Church in this city, the congregation of that Church met last night and called Rev. Robt. E. Caldwell, of North Carolina. It is thought Mr. Caldwell will accept and in a short time take charge of the Church.

The residence of Mr. Sanford T. Egbert (Bud), on the hill near the Arsenal, was entered Saturday night by thieves and his supply of sugar, coffee, lard and flour carried off, and his coop robbed of half a dozen chickens. These robberies are entirely too frequent and certainly ought to be stopped in some way.

During the absence of the family of Judge W. P. D. Bush at prayer-meeting on Friday night of last week, some coal fell from the grate in one of the upper rooms and set fire to the floor. A large hole was burnt through to the room below and in a short time the whole building would have been in flames had not it been discovered. The Fire Department was on hand promptly and extinguished the flames. The damage to the furniture and building by the fire and water will amount to three or four hundred dollars. Fully insured.

Prof. Andrews will give a series of entertainments at the Opera House next week, beginning on Monday evening, November 3d. The Carrollton, Mo., Democrat has this to say of the performance:

Professor Andrews gave the first of his series of inimitable entertainments at Centennial Hall last night. Notwithstanding he came among us a stranger, he was greeted with a full house, and has made a host of friends already. There is more fun to the square inch in his show than in any and all that ever visited our town. As a sleight-of-hand performer, the Professor is simply immense, while the performances of his trained birds are, of themselves, well worth the price of admission. The aerial suspension of Mrs. Andrews in midair, without any support of any kind, so far as the audience is capable of detecting, is one of the most sensational performances ever placed upon the stage. At the close of the performance the distribution of presents was made to the holders of the lucky numbers, and of course they enjoyed this part of the exhibition. The gifts were all of a useful character, and the principal ones went where they will be appreciated. Another full house will be out to-night.
